“Caucasus – History, Transformations, Perspectives”

Rzeszów, October 12-13, 2017

Dear Colleagues,

We have the great pleasure to invite all those who are interested in Caucasus issues to Rzeszow. This will be another meeting of the international Caucasian researchers whose idea was born as a result of cooperation between the University of Rzeszow and Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań.

The conference is interdisciplinary and covers the period from antiquity to the modern times. Its aim is to present the latest research findings on the Caucasus Region and to create conditions for discussion and exchange of views among international researchers. We also hope that one of the outcomes of the meeting will be the integration of the scientific community and the development of cooperation between science and research centers in Poland and the Caucasus.

We invite to participate in the conference academics, specialists, researchers, doctoral and students who undertake scientific activities on the Caucasus in various scientific fields from Poland and other countries, especially from the Caucasus region, as well as representatives of Poles from the Caucasus region and Caucasian nations in Poland.

The conference will be conducted in Polish, Russian and English. The result of the conference will be a scientific publication.
