

SYLLABUS

SUBJECT:

Commercial Law

TEACHER:

Mgr Tomasz Miśko

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

- introducing general institutions which regulated public and private position of an entrepreneur under Polish legal system,
- introducing with fundamental problems concerning the process of functioning law in spheres connected with conducting a business activity.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- shaping the knowledge about general legal relationships which take place in business activity,
- developing the ability of using legal text from commercial law in the process of describing, analysing and resolving specific cases.

GRADING POLICY:

The scope of the credit include a knowledge of issues presented in required literature and discussed during the classes as well as expertise of analysed legal texts.

To get a final mark student is obliged to pass the test prepared from issues, which will be presented during the classes.

TIMETABLE:

Thursday, 15.20 – 16.50, starting from 11 March 2010, classroom 13

TEXTBOOK AND REQUIRED MATERIAL:

- J. Olszewski (ed.), Selected Issues of the Polish Business Law, Ius et Administratio, z. 4, vol. 16, Rzeszów 2007
- ACT of 23 April 1964 THE CIVIL CODE
- ACT of 15 September 2000 THE CODE OF COMMERCIAL PARTNERSHIPS AND COMPANIES
- ACT of 19 November, 1999 ECONOMIC ACTIVITY LAW
- ACT of 2 July 2004 ON FREEDOM OF ECONOMIC ACTIVITY
- ACT of 20 August 1997 ON THE NATIONAL COURT REGISTER

PREREQUISITES:

A general knowledge of Civil Law is advisable.