

SYLLABUS

SUBJECT:

Science on State and Politics

TEACHER:

dr Viktoriya Serzhanova

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

the course focuses on the definition of state; constitutive attributes of state; aims and functions of state and state symbols; state power, State interest; forms of government; territorial structure; methods of government; state and nation; state and other forms of social organization; state towards the processes of the European integration and globalization ; the concept of politics, political leadership; political power; political culture.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

the student will gain some knowledge about the general principles of functioning of the state as a political community

GRADING POLICY:

credit in the written form

TIMETABLE:

Monday, 17.30

TEXTBOOK AND REQUIRED MATERIALS:

Kuźelewska, E.: Contemporary Political System, Temida2, Białystok, 2008

(only as a supplementary literature)

the students will be partly provided with study materials during the classes and are supposed to get additional materials on their own

PREREQUISITES:

basis of the Constitutional Law