

SYLLABUS

SUBJECT :

Constitutional System of State Authorities

TEACHER:

dr Viktoriya Serzhanova, mgr Katarzyna Szwed

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

the course explains the definition of state; contemporary forms of state; theory of the Constitution; fundamental principles of political system; human rights and freedoms in the Constitution of the Republic of Poland; sources of law; constitutional state authorities: Parliament, Head of State, Government; constitutional judicial authorities; self-government; authorities of state control and legal protection

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

the student will be acquainted with general principles of political system of the Republic of Poland and with legal and political construction of the constitutional system of state authorities.

GRADING POLICY:

exam in the written form

TIMETABLE:

Monday, 12.30; Wednesday, 10.45

TEXTBOOK AND REQUIRED MATERIALS:

Prokop, K.: Polish Constitutional Law, Temida 2, Białystok, 2008

Polish Constitutional Law, Publisher: Wydawnictwo Sejmowe, Biuro Analiz Sejmowych, Warszawa, 2009

PREREQUISITES:

general knowledge about state and study of contemporary constitutional mechanisms in democratic European countries and of the Constitutional Law