

8A FAME AND FORTUNE

Vocabulary extension.

Match the beginnings and endings of the sentences:

1. Mark Staines knew that his job at the hamburger restaurant would never bring him ..
2. He did the lottery every week but never bought the winning ..
3. He dreamt of making ..
4. Cynthia came into Mark's hamburger restaurant one evening and immediately noticed his good looks. 'I could make you ..
5. Mark did his first modeling job and became an overnight ..
6. After his first photos became known, people stopped him in the street to ask for ..
7. Within months, he was the centre of ..
8. He was so much in the public ..
9. That was when he started to hate the loss ..
10. Finally, instead of waiting to make a lot of money, losing ..

- a. of privacy and felt like returning to the obscurity of the hamburger restaurant.
- b. a star,' she told him and he agreed to go with her to New York.
- c. fame and he would never make a lot of money as long as he stayed there.
- d. sensation with the public and media.
- e. a fortune but his dreams never came true until he met Cynthia Palmer who worked for a modeling agency in New York.
- f. eye that he couldn't leave his house without being followed by the paparazzi.
- g. ticket like the people he saw on the television news and in the newspapers.
- h. his fortune was all he could dream of.
- i. media attention, with everything he did and everything he said reported in newspapers and magazines around the world.
- j. his autograph, which he always gave.

Answers:

1. c
2. g
3. e
4. b
5. d
6. j
7. i
8. f
9. a
10. h

Przygotowała: Mgr Joanna Sztaba-Surowiec

Ćwiczenia na licencji Creative Commons

Mgr Joanna Sztaba-Surowiec