

Table of Contents

Bogumiła Mucha-Leszko

Supply- and demand-side sources of economic growth in Poland and the largest EU member states in 2000–2018 7

Ryszard Kata

Intra-sectoral income inequalities between farms in Poland in the 2004–2017 period 26

Andrzej Parzonko

Inequalities in economic potential and the level of direct payments in dairy farms from selected EU countries 43

Magdalena Kuźma

The importance of New Institutional Economics in explaining of economic growth and development 55

Mirosław Bochenek

On some misunderstandings about the name and the essence of the German economic model 73

Gabriela Czapiewska

Intergenerational solidarity from an economic and social policy perspective 92

Wiesław M. Maziarz

Analysis of the possibilities of using economic tools as instruments to reduce economic inequalities based on the register of the West Pomeranian Voivodeship 107

Marek Leszczyński

Security as a public welfare in the risk society 117

Andrzej Szablewski

The conventional power sector in the face of the challenge of technological transformation 126

Anna Malina

Analysis of spatial diversity in the socio-economic development of Polish voivodeships in 2005–2017 138

Wojciech Koziol

Local factors affecting the fair minimum wage 156

Barbara Siuta-Tokarska

Science and philosophy of sustainable development 167

Franciszek Piontek

Managing science and education versus building new civilisation 184

Iwona Kowalska

EU funds 2021–2027 in the Strategy for Responsible Development. The normative approach 197

Barbara Piontek

Special economic zones and their development towards the implementation of sustainable processes – a retrospective approach 207

Monika Wodnicka

The sharing economy – logistics services – economic growth 227

Aleksandra Witoszek-Kubicka

The use of crowdfunding platforms for the implementation of corporate social responsibility activities 238

Guidelines for Authors 252