

Elżbieta Feret

Prof. dr hab. Elżbieta Feret, Head of the Financial Law Department, Director Centre for Regional and Cross-Border Studies, The Faculty of Law and Administration, University of Rzeszow.

Thematic areas of conducted research:

1. financial and legal aspects of the functioning of public finance in Poland;
2. genesis and influence of Polish and foreign concepts and theories of local government;
3. analysis of common administrative and financial aspects of the activities of local government;
4. ensuring the financial security of the activities of local government;
5. the financial aspect of refugees from Ukraine, with particular emphasis on fiscal crimes and misdemeanours under the RID grant "Migrants from Ukraine in the Podkarpackie Voivodeship. Socio-economic implications";
6. the use of AI in legal and financial regulations.

A new area of activity is close cooperation with the Carpathian Euroregions Association, the Statistical Office and the Chamber of Tax Administration in Rzeszów in terms of research on phenomena related to migrants from Ukraine. From October 1, 2026, substantive care for Fulbright scholarship holders regarding research on: "Administrative challenges related to persons from Ukraine under temporary protection".