

Hanene Zbiss

Hanene Zbiss – Tunisian investigative journalist and trainer. She won several international awards like Samir Kassir Award for Freedom of press (2014) and Raef Badawi Award for Courageous Journalists (2019). She was nominated for the Global Shining Light Award in 2015. She is member of the International Consortium for Investigative Journalism (ICIJ) and Environmental Investigative Forum (EIF). She is vice president of the Press Council, a self-regulatory institution for the media sector in Tunisia.

She taught investigative journalism in the Press Institute and Sciences of Information (IPSI), from 2017-2025. She hold a master degree in Media Science and Technologies from the Mediterranean School for Advanced Studies, University of Pavia (Italy) and University of Tunis.