

Luigi Bramati

Colonel Luigi Bramati – Director of Nato Stability Policing Centre of Excellence. Luigi Bramati is a Colonel of the Italian Carabinieri. In 1994, Col. Luigi Bramati completed his high school classical three-year curriculum at the Military High School “Nunziatella”, in Naples, and then joined the Italian Military Academy. He subsequently attended a three-year course at the Carabinieri Officers Academy of Rome, from which he graduated in 1999. That same year, he graduated in Law from the “Sapienza” University of Studies in Rome. In 2003, he graduated in Political Sciences from the University of Studies “San Pio V” of Rome, and in 2004 in “Internal and External Security Science” from the “Tor Vergata” University of Studies of Rome. During the academic year 2014/2015, he attended the Italian Joint Defense Staff College Course (ISSMI Course) at the Center for Advances Studies of the Italian Defense (CASD), and was awarded a master’s degree in international and strategic-Military Studies from the “Roma-tre” University. He was also awarded the title of Defense Legal Advisor in 2015.

He was appointed to various duties in Italy and abroad, including in Iraq in 2003 as Deputy Provost Marshal of the Multinational Division South-East in Basra, and in 2006 as International Police Advisor and Staff Officer within the Civilian Police Assistance and Training Team in Baghdad. From 2009 to 2015, he served within the Carabinieri HQ National Operations Room, where he was appointed as Chief of the “Situation Awareness” section. From 2016 to 2019, he served as Assistant Defense and Defense Cooperation Attaché of the Italian Embassy to the United States, in Washington, DC. Following his three-year tenure as the Carabinieri Provincial Headquarters’ Commanding Officer in Avellino (Southern Italy), as of June 29th, 2023, he is Director of the Stability Policing Centre of Excellence (NATO SPCOE), in Vicenza (North-Eastern Italy).

He is author, among other articles and essays, of a research paper published in 2021 by the Center of Military Strategic Studies (Ce.Mi.S.S.) of the Italian Defense, titled “Iraq 2003-2009: Lessons Learned from the Chilcot Commission, Where Stability Policing Could Have Made a Difference. Ten Considerations for Planners and Commanders”.

Born in 1975, he shares with his wife Stephanie and their three children the love for travelling and outdoor sport activities.