

Aneta Ostasz

Aneta Ostasz is currently coordinating the programs of the International Organization for Migration (IOM) in Rzeszow. Aneta has over 20 years of experience in international organizations, including 15 years within the United Nations system, specializing in the protection of displaced people. She has extensive experience working in multicultural environments, reporting and managing UN humanitarian projects in Europe (Greece, Poland), Africa (Central African Republic, Ethiopia, Senegal—with responsibility for 12 countries in Central and West Africa, including crisis response to the situation in Sudan), and the Caucasus (Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia). In March 2022, in the Podkarpackie Voivodeship, she initiated the coordination of UNHCR activities and the crisis response to the influx of refugees from Ukraine. Aneta is an American of Polish origin and holds a Master's degree in International Relations from George Washington University in Washington, D.C.
