

Salvatore Amaduzzi

Salvatore Amaduzzi (Orcid ID 0000-0003-0129-6272). Degrees in Maths and in Computer Science. Associate Professor of GEOTEchnologies and Innovation at the University of Udine. Courses in Geomarketing, GEOTEchnology for Tourism, Digital Cartography and GIS, Remote Sensing, GeoBigData, Artificial Intelligence.

Representative of the University of Udine in the Network of Universities for Sustainability (RUS).

Shareholder of AlperTech, University Spinoff and innovative Startup, for the application of Artificial Intelligence and GeoBigData to SMEs.

Coordinator of the GEOMatics Lab of the University of Udine and coordinator of the REUSE portal.

Visiting professor and collaboration with other foreign universities (Penn State, MIT, Florida International University, at CEPT University-India...).

Coordinator of national and international projects in the field of GEOTEchnologies for private companies and public administrations and internationalization for ICT companies. Currently he is engaged in pioneering projects involving Artificial Intelligence, GeoBigData from Telco, the utilization of wearable devices for field services activities, focusing on smart glass, watches, and more.