

Małgorzata Sikora-Gaca

Małgorzata Sikora-Gaca, PhD – PhD in Political Science. She is employed at the Faculty of Political Science and Administration, at the Department of International Relations at the Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz. Her scientific achievements include 75 scientific publications, including 10 compact papers and over 60 articles in scientific journals and chapters in collections edited by the editors. In the years 2007-2020, he was the manager and coordinator of many projects co-financed by the European Union, implemented in the private and public sectors. Expert in project management. Author of the project management method based on quantifiable goals. Originator and author of the program of the first postgraduate studies in the field of accessibility in Poland – "Accessibility Management – Accessibility Specialist". These studies have been carried out cyclically at the Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz since 2020. Auditor of accessibility of public and private space. Author of contextual indicators relating to accessibility, which can be applied in development projects. Conducting workshops on available projects. Specialist in entrepreneurship of local government units. Co-author of Local Enterprise Development Programs for selected local governments in Poland. The author's scientific interests are related to projects co-financed from European funds, available projects and Polish development projects implemented in the Eastern Partnership countries. Author of recommendations and recommendations relating to development programming and projects in this area in the Republic of Moldova.