

Ryszard Suduł

Dr Ryszard Suduł – researcher at several academic centers, primarily employed at the Academy of Zamość. Retired officer of the Polish Border Guard. Doctor of Humanities. His scientific and research interests cover two main areas: the first concerns the conditions of migration processes resulting from the Schengen border system, and the second concerns the internal security of the European Union, including the Republic of Poland. Author of numerous publications on state security, migration processes, and the conditions of cross-border cooperation. Non-academic interests: active promoter of physical activity and regionalist.