2. The results of the competition are public.
3. A detailed schedule of individual stages of the recruitment procedure is determined by the Director of the UR Doctoral School after consultation with the Council of the Doctoral School of the University of Rzeszów. The deadlines specified in the schedule referred to in the preceding sentence are announced on the UR Doctoral School website no later than 5 months before the beginning of recruitment.

4. Admission to the UR Doctoral School takes place by way of entry on the list of doctoral students.
5. Refusal of admission to the UR Doctoral School takes place by way of an administrative decision. The decision may be appealed against.
6. A person admitted to the Doctoral School begins education and acquires the rights of a doctoral student upon taking the following oath: "I solemnly swear that I shall persistently strive to acquire the knowledge and skills and to develop my personality; to abide by the university rules and traditions; and with all my conduct, to uphold the dignity and honor of the Doctoral Student of the University of Rzeszów".
7. A doctoral student may not be employed as an academic teacher or researcher. The prohibition does not apply to the employment of a doctoral student:
 - a. in order to carry out a research project referred to in Article 119(2)(2) and (3) of the Act;
 - b. after the mid-term evaluation with a positive result, except that in the case of employment exceeding half of full-time work, the amount of the scholarship is 40% of the monthly scholarship referred to in Article 209 paragraph 4 point 2 of the Act;
 - c. who is not entitled to a doctoral scholarship.

Admission limits

1. Candidates are admitted to the UR Doctoral School within admission limits set by an ordinance of the UR Rector.
2. The ordinance of the UR Rector referred to in paragraph 1 above shall be issued no later than one month before the date of commencement of the recruitment procedure specified in the detailed schedule of individual stages of the recruitment procedure.
3. Candidates may be admitted to the UR Doctoral School beyond the limits referred to in § 3 section 1, if there exists a possibility of financing the doctoral scholarship from external funds as part of scientific projects.
4. Recruitment to the UR Doctoral School referred to in § 3 section 3 takes place in accordance with the rules applicable in this Resolution, with the proviso that:
 - a. the candidate is also obliged to join the recruitment process as part of a research project, if required by the legal regulations of a given scientific project;
 - b. recruitment procedures for scientific projects financed from external sources are carried out according to individual schedules, before or during the admissions procedure for the UR Doctoral School;
 - c. the competition for financing a doctoral scholarship as part of a scientific project is conducted by the UR Doctoral School at the request and in consultation with the head of the research project in accordance with the guidelines provided on the UR Doctoral School website;
 - d. the decision on financing the doctoral scholarship from the funds of the research project shall be submitted to the Director of the UR Doctoral School no later than the end of the admissions procedure for the UR Doctoral School, specified in the recruitment schedule for the UR Doctoral School.

The Admissions Committee

1. Recruitment in a given scientific discipline and artistic discipline is conducted by Admissions Committees appointed by the Director of the Doctoral School UR at the request of the director of the institute representing the scientific or artistic discipline in which the University of Rzeszów has the right to confer doctoral degrees.
2. The motion of the director of the competent disciplinary institute for the appointment of the Admissions Committee shall be accompanied by an opinion of the scientific council of the discipline regarding the composition of the Admissions Committee.
3. Administrative services for Admissions Committees are provided by the Secretary's Office of the UR Doctoral School.
4. One Admission Committee is appointed for one discipline.
5. The Admissions Committee consists of at least five academic teachers holding at least the degree of habilitated doctor, representing a given scientific or artistic discipline in which the University of Rzeszów has the right to confer doctoral degrees, including: chairman, deputy chairman, secretary and members of the Commission. The Commission shall consist of an odd number of members.
6. There must be no conflict of interest between members of the admissions committee and the candidate. The members of the committee and the candidate may not:
 - a. run a joint household;
 - b. be in a relationship of kinship, affinity up to the second degree, or in a relationship of adoption, care or guardianship;
 - c. hold a co-authorship of scientific or artistic achievements.If a conflict of interest is suspected, a member of the committee shall be excluded from the meeting. If the chairman is excluded, his deputy takes over the chair.
7. The schedule of the recruitment procedure takes into account the possibility of setting a minimum of two and a maximum of 5 days provided for an interview.
8. If the candidate misses the deadline specified in the recruitment schedule, the Director of the UR Doctoral School may, at the candidate's request, restore the deadline if the candidate proves that the failure occurred without his fault. A request for restoration of the deadline must be submitted within seven days from the date on which the cause of default, i.e. non-compliance with the deadline, ceased to exist. At the same time as submitting the application, the action for which the deadline was set must be completed.
9. The meeting of the Admissions Committee may be conducted stationary in the form of direct contact or remotely using electronic communication tools. The chairman of the relevant committee is responsible for the organization of meetings of the Admissions Committee.
10. Minutes of the meeting of the Admissions Committee are drawn up, which are signed by all members of the Committee present at the meeting. In the case of a remote meeting, the Chairman of the Admissions Committee is responsible for the completeness of signatures on the minutes. The Minutes of the Admissions Committee are submitted to the Secretary's Office of the UR Doctoral School within three working days from the date of the end of the meeting of the Admissions Committee.

11. During the meeting, the Admissions Committee makes decisions by voting by a simple majority of votes, in the presence of at least half of the members of the Committee. In the event of a tie, the Chairman of the Admissions Committee shall have the casting vote.
12. The tasks of the Admissions Committee include in particular:
 - a. conducting the recruitment procedure, including documentation of the recruitment procedure;
 - b. verification of candidates' competences to undertake education at the UR Doctoral School;
 - c. verification of documents submitted electronically in the university recruitment system by candidates for the UR Doctoral School in terms of their compliance with the requirements set out in this Resolution and making decisions on admitting or not admitting the candidate to an interview;
 - d. notifying candidates to the UR Doctoral School about admission to an interview and about its date and place via a personal registration account in the university recruitment system and the e-mail address indicated in the application for admission to the UR Doctoral School;
 - e. conducting the recruitment procedure, including the interview;
 - f. preparation of ranking lists and protocols of the admissions procedure;
 - g. announcing the results of the admissions procedure.
13. After completion of the admissions procedure, the documentation from the admissions procedure is immediately delivered to the Secretary's Office of the UR Doctoral School.
14. At the end of the admissions procedure, the documentation submitted by unsuccessful candidates is permanently deleted from the electronic recruitment system.

Rules of the Admissions Procedure

1. The admissions procedure for the UR Doctoral School consists of the following stages:
 - a. electronic registration of candidates via the university recruitment system, including entering the necessary data by the candidate and attaching documents required in the admissions procedure in the form of scans of these documents;
 - b. the admissions procedure, including verification of documents submitted by candidates electronically in the university recruitment system, verification of knowledge of a modern foreign language and an interview;
 - c. submission of necessary documents by persons qualified for admission to the UR Doctoral School;
 - d. entry on the list of doctoral students or issuing an administrative decision refusing admission to the UR Doctoral School.
2. The University of Rzeszów is not responsible for:
 - a. the consequences of the candidate's failure to familiarize himself/herself with the information contained in his/her personal registration account;
 - b. the consequences of the candidate's failure to familiarize himself/herself with the information sent to the candidate via the e-mail address provided by the candidate;
 - c. the consequences of the candidate's failure to familiarize himself/herself with the information published on the UR Doctoral School website regarding the admission process;

- d. incorrect entry by the candidate into the university recruitment system, unless the fault lies with the University of Rzeszów;
 - e. inability to register or make changes caused by network failures independent of the University of Rzeszów;
 - f. the content of the information provided by the candidate. In the case of attaching scans of documents constituting the basis for qualification in the university recruitment system, the candidate takes full responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the data provided during registration.
3. Admission to the UR Doctoral School may be applied for by a person who holds a master's degree, master's degree in engineering or equivalent.
4. In exceptional cases, justified by the highest quality of scientific achievements, admission to the UR Doctoral School may be applied for by a person who does not meet the requirements set out in Article 186(1)(1) of the Act, who is a graduate of first-cycle studies or a student who has completed the third year of long-cycle studies and persons holding a diploma referred to in Article 326(2)(2) or persons, referred to in Article 327(2) of the Act.
5. One can be a doctoral student at a time in only one doctoral school.
6. At the UR Doctoral School, the same admission conditions apply to Polish citizens and foreigners. Foreigners are obliged to undergo the recruitment process on the terms set out in this Resolution.
7. Foreigners may receive education at the UR Doctoral School on the basis of:
 - a. international agreements, in accordance with the terms laid down in those agreements;
 - b. agreements concluded with foreign entities by universities, on the terms set out in these agreements;
 - c. a Minister's decision;
 - d. decisions of the Director of NAWA (the Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange) in relation to its scholarship holders;
 - e. a decision of the NCN (The National Science Center) Director to award funding for basic research in the form of a research project, fellowship or scholarship, qualified for funding through a competition;
 - f. an administrative decision of the Rector.
8. A person applying for admission to the UR Doctoral School is obliged to complete registration in the university recruitment system, including attaching in an electronic version all required documents and additional documents and materials confirming the candidate's scientific or artistic achievements (if the candidate has such additional achievements) within the recruitment deadline announced on the UR Doctoral School website. Incomplete registration, including failure to attach the required documents in the university recruitment system within the deadline specified in the schedule of the admissions procedure, results in refusal of admission to the UR Doctoral School.
9. A person applying for admission to the UR Doctoral School is obliged to submit scans of the following documents in an electronic version:
 - a. an original or a copy of the second-cycle or long-cycle Master's degree diploma confirming the professional title of Master, Master's degree in Engineering or equivalent; in the case of graduates who do not yet hold a diploma – a certificate of completion of second-cycle or long-cycle studies and obtaining the professional title

- of Master, Master's degree in Engineering or equivalent (in the case of admission to the UR Doctoral School, a diploma or a copy of the diploma of graduation should be submitted immediately after its receipt);
- b. a Diploma Supplement or a Course of Study Card, in the case of persons who do not hold a Diploma Supplement;
 - c. a document confirming knowledge of a modern foreign language at least B2 level in accordance with the list of certificates constituting Annex 2 to this Resolution;
 - d. a CV/resume;
 - e. a list of scientific or artistic achievements of the candidate, and in the case of candidates who have publications – a certificate issued by the Library of the University of Rzeszów or another university library regarding the candidate's publications with a full bibliographic record.
 - f. documents listed in § 7 section 2 of this Resolution concerning the discipline in which the candidate plans to carry out a doctoral dissertation;
 - g. documents confirming the candidate's scientific or artistic achievements for the current year and/or for the period of the last 4 calendar years preceding the recruitment procedure, which are listed in § 7 section 3 point 1) of this Resolution and relate to the discipline under which the candidate enters the admissions procedure.
10. A person applying for admission to the UR Doctoral School may submit in an electronic version scans of additional documents and materials confirming the candidate's scientific or artistic achievements for the current year and/or for the period of the last 4 calendar years preceding the admissions procedure, which are listed in § 7 section 3 points 2)-7) of this Resolution and relate to the discipline under which the candidate enters the admissions procedure.
 11. Documents submitted after the deadlines specified in the detailed schedule of individual stages of the admissions procedure shall not be taken into account. A detailed list of the candidate's scientific and artistic achievements that are taken into account and the method of scoring and documenting them constitutes Annex 1 to this Resolution.
 12. A candidate entering the admissions procedure within the artistic discipline: visual arts and conservation of works of art is obliged to submit a portfolio of works, extended by a description of artistic, design and research interests and plans in the context of the anticipated doctoral dissertation.
 13. A candidate holding a diploma of completion of studies abroad is obliged to submit a legalized diploma or a diploma with an apostille clause or a certificate of recognition, by way of a nostrification procedure, of the equivalence of the diploma with the relevant Polish diploma of graduation and professional title – if it is required by the provisions of generally applicable law in Poland.
 14. In the case of documents obtained abroad, the university may require the candidate to certify that the diploma entitles the candidate to study at the doctoral school in the country where it was issued (if such information is not included in the document entitling to take up education). The university may also request information from the candidate on the scale of evaluation of the documents referred to above.
 15. Documents drawn up in a foreign language other than English are submitted by the candidate along with their translation into Polish, made by a sworn translator.
 16. A candidate who does not meet the requirements set out in Article 186(1)(1) of the Act, who is a graduate of first-cycle studies or a student who has completed the third year of long-cycle studies referred to in paragraph 4 above, is obliged to submit, instead of the documents referred to in paragraph 9 point a, respectively: the original or a copy of the diploma of completion of first-cycle studies (together with a certificate with the average grade from the course of studies) or a certificate issued by the dean's office of completion of first-cycle studies (together with the average grade from the course of studies) or a certificate of completion of the third year of long-cycle studies (along with the average grade from the course of studies) and a description of previous scientific achievements, together with the opinion of the head of the university unit, a list and copies of articles published or accepted for publication related to the scientific research conducted.

17. Candidates who have been qualified for admission to the UR Doctoral School are obliged to provide in paper form:
 - a. applications for admission to the Doctoral School at the University of Rzeszów;
 - b. documents listed in §5 section 9 of this Resolution;
 - c. other documents that the candidate attached in the form of scans in the university recruitment system;
 - d. 1 current and signed photograph of the candidate, in accordance with the requirements used for issuing identity cards or passports
– within the deadline specified in the recruitment schedule.
18. The documents referred to in section 17 above should be submitted in person to the Secretary's Office of the UR Doctoral School or sent to the address of the Secretary's Office of the UR Doctoral School (by registered mail; the date of posting counts). When submitting the documents in person, an identity document is required. The documents may be submitted on behalf of the candidate by a person with the appropriate power of attorney.
19. A candidate with a certified disability, which prevents him/her from participating in the recruitment procedure, may benefit from support offered by the Office for Persons with Disabilities (e.g. transport between UR buildings, sign language interpreter, personal assistant, etc.).

The Qualification Procedure

1. The qualification procedure is conducted by Admissions Committees in a scientific discipline or artistic discipline in Polish or English.
2. The qualification procedure includes the following stages of assessment:
 - a. formal assessment of the completeness and compliance of the submitted documents in relation to the requirements set out in § 5 clauses 9-16 of this Resolution;
 - b. confirmation of knowledge of a modern foreign language at least B2 level, in accordance with the list of certificates constituting Annex 2 to this Resolution;
 - c. an interview.
3. The condition for admission to the interview is to meet the requirements set out in § 6 section 2 points a and b of this Resolution.
4. The rules of the admissions procedure are published on the UR Doctoral School website.
5. The Admissions Committee in a scientific discipline or artistic discipline creates ranking lists on the basis of the recruitment procedure.

6. The candidate's place on the ranking list is determined by the number of points obtained in the admissions procedure.
7. If the same number of points is obtained, the ranking list is determined by the interview score. In the case of the same number of interview points, the decision on the place on the ranking list is made by the Admissions Committee in a secret ballot.
8. The Admissions Committee notifies the candidate about the result of the recruitment procedure via e-mail or a registered letter to the address indicated by the candidate in the university recruitment system.
9. The results of the recruitment procedure shall be public. The results are published on the UR Doctoral School website in the form of ranking lists of persons participating in the admissions procedure – qualified and not qualified for admission – with identification numbers of candidates.
10. The UR Doctoral School admits candidates who, in the course of the admissions procedure, obtained the highest number of points and met all formal requirements and provided in paper form the documents referred to in §5 section 17 of this Resolution within the deadline specified in the recruitment schedule, until the admission limit is exhausted. Failure to provide the documents within the prescribed period or delivery of the incomplete documents referred to in the preceding sentence shall result in refusal of admission to the UR Doctoral School.
11. In the event of failure to provide the documents or resignation from taking up education at the UR Doctoral School before the beginning of the education cycle by candidates qualified for admission, candidates from the next places on the ranking list, who due to lack of places have not been qualified for admission to the UR Doctoral School, are admitted to the places vacated by them.
12. Subject to § 7, candidates must meet the following conditions and shall be evaluated according to the following criteria:
 - a. a master's degree, a master's degree in engineering or an equivalent grade of at least 'good' (4.0);
 - b. an interview with the candidate regarding knowledge in the field of a selected scientific discipline or artistic discipline, according to the score: 0 – 40 points. The interview is conducted in Polish or English in accordance with the candidate's preferences reported in the university recruitment system. If one chooses Polish, the interview may include a part conducted in English. In the case of candidates intending to pursue a doctoral thesis in the field of humanities or social sciences, it is possible to replace English with German or Russian during the interview. A minimum of 20 points is considered a positive result of the interview.
 - c. The Admissions Committee also takes into account the documented scientific and artistic achievements of the candidate for the current year and/or for the period of the last 4 calendar years preceding the recruitment procedure regarding the discipline under which the candidate enters the admissions procedure. A detailed list of the candidate's scientific and artistic achievements that are taken into account and the method of scoring and documenting them constitutes Annex 1 to this Resolution.
13. The final grade is a point value calculated according to the formula:

$$\text{number of candidate's points} = X \cdot 1 + Y \cdot 0.10$$
 Where:
 X – number of interview points

Y – number of points according to the list of scientific and artistic achievements of the candidate.

14. In the case of candidates who do not meet the requirements set out in Article 186(1)(1) of the Act, who are graduates of first-cycle studies, the grade from the diploma referred to in § 6(12)(a) is the grade from the diploma of completion of first-cycle studies.
15. In the case of candidates who do not meet the requirements set out in Article 186(1)(1) of the Act, who are students who have completed the third year of long-cycle studies, the grade from the diploma referred to in § 6 section 12 point a) shall be calculated on the basis of the average grade from the course of study to date and it is considered that a candidate with an average grade from the course of studies to date of at least 4.00 meets the condition, referred to in § 6 section 12 point a) of this Resolution.
16. For the purposes of recruitment to the UR Doctoral School, the results obtained in the course of studies or diplomas obtained outside the Polish are converted into a scale appropriate to the Polish assessment system. The method of converting grades of diplomas awarded outside the Polish or in the course of studies carried out abroad Polish is calculated in accordance with the information provided on the NAWA website in the section "Descriptions of foreign education systems". The recalculation of grades is carried out by the appropriate Admissions Committee. If the method of converting grades from the country in which the candidate obtained the diploma is not described on the NAWA website, the decision on the method of converting grades on a Polish scale belongs to the competent Admissions Committee.
